Heard.

In this writ petition, the order impugned was passed in 2001. The claim of the petitioner is that it came to the notice of the petitioner very late. The claim is not sustainable, as the delay of five years is too much to be explained. The explanation for delay is not accepted. An order which is passed in year 2001 cannot be made subject matter of challenge in judicial review under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. There is no force in the writ petition. The writ petition is hereby dismissed.
